

IAS STAFF MEETING MINUTES

4 January 1974

25X1A

25X1A

1. [redacted] announced that Mr. Colby would attend the next DDI Executive Council Meeting.

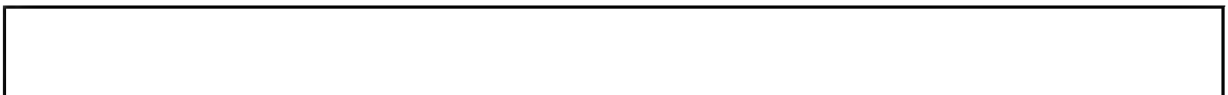

2. The new Agency newspaper (The National Intelligence Daily) will replace the black book CIB on 10 January. Distribution will be somewhat more limited than the black book CIB.

25X1A

3. A CIA/State exchange program is under study. [redacted] of the DDI Staff is soliciting views on various possibilities for such an exchange. The only criteria existing at present is that any assignments will be in-country and will be limited to one or two years.

4. DDO is in the process of briefing all the new ambassadors appointed by the President.

25X1C

25X6

6. The DDI is looking into the routine procurement of film from

7. Lou Tordello, retiring Deputy Director of NSA, will receive the National Security Medal from DOD and the Distinguished Intelligence Medal from CIA.

8. Congressional briefings will resume after the 21st of January. Emphasis will be directed toward military costs.

9. General Daniel O. Graham will head a US delegation to NATO.

10. An SNIE has been requested on the opening of the Suez Canal.

11. Mr. Proctor reported on his visit to Dr. Schlesinger to discuss Soviet defense expenditures relative to the Gross National Product.

12. Jack King outlined the seminar he is having from 14-16 January on Law of the Sea. He said he has a number of excellent speakers lined up from both government and the private sector.

13. Harry Eisenbeiss reported that the consolidation of the computer services within OJCS is now complete and asked that anyone not getting information runs on a timely basis to please report these to CRS.

25X1A

14. There are some personnel changes in NPIC. [redacted] retired. [redacted] Missile Division, IEG, retired and has been replaced by [redacted] Dino Brugioni has taken over Western Division, IEG, and has been replaced as Executive Officer by [redacted] has gone to OSR as Special Assistant to the Director and has been replaced by [redacted] The NPIC Planning Staff will be abolished and its functions placed in TSG.

25X1A

15. [redacted] read a memorandum from the DCI regarding efforts that will be undertaken in the Agency to conserve energy. All personnel are asked to conscientiously help where possible in this conservation.

16. [redacted] was selected to attend the next Midcareer Course.

17. A discussion was held on NPIC's new time accounting form. IAS personnel will continue to use the existing IAS time sheet.

RBG:el